WHAT A WONDERFUL WORLD Festival
of arts, science and the natural world

THROUGHOUT THE FESTIVAL
At the Playhouse

ART EXHIBITION
by Diane Watson

Kaleidoscopic patterns created from plastic beach finds. Alnwick Playhouse Gallery from 1 June - 3 July, Workshop with Diane 11th June 1pm-4pm at the Playhouse.

MCKENNA'S CAFE
McKennas Cafe will be sourcing much of its food and drink from some of our finest local producers.

SPRAY-PAINT ART FROM GALLERY YOUTH
The artworks can be seen around Alnwick, in the Playhouse and The Alnwick Garden.

THURSDAY 23 JUNE
7.30pm Studio

WORDS FOR A WONDERFUL WORLD
Some of our very fine North East poets read their work. Bring a poem of your own for the 'open mic.' session.
£2.00 booking fee then Pay What You Can.

FRIDAY 24 JUNE
11am & 12.30pm Studio

GREEN TAILS
Storytelling with Robin Simpson
11am children aged 5-7
12.30pm children aged 7-11 | Free

7.30pm Bill Hugonin Auditorium

CLIMATE CONVERSATIONS AND CABARET
Tom Heap, BBC Countryfile presenter.
Duncan Hutt, Conservation Director, Northumberland Wildlife Trust.
Professor Sara Walker, Department of Energy, Newcastle University.
Followed by Q and A with contributions from Duchess's Community High School students.

Interval

Kate Fox, comedian and poet presents a light-hearted take on climate change with special guests Sandra Kerr and Alistair Anderson.
Tickets: for the whole evening: £18.00 / 18s and under £12

SATURDAY 25 JUNE
11.00am - 12.30pm The Old Wardrobe
Nancy Kerr and James Fagan
Learn songs and perform them at Alnwick Garden on Sunday
£2.00 booking fee then Pay What You Can. Please note: this space is not currently fully accessible.

All tickets from Alnwick Playhouse Box Office
Festival Pass £ 40 / 18 and under £20
Festival details from www.whataww.org

12noon-1.15pm/2.15pm-5pm Studio.
TALKING-THE-TALK
FREE afternoon of talks with Q and A. Open to all subject to available space

Local Waste Recycling Hannah Davison, Green Gardening Tom Pattinson, Re Forestry Andy Howard, Doddington Forest, Reduce your fuel bills! Christine Nicholls CAN, Climate Justice Rosemary Hartill and Rebecca Woo

1.30pm - 2pm Bill Hugonin Auditorium
LIFE Eliot Smith Dance Contemporary dance £6.00 / 18s and under £3.00

5.30pm-7pm Studio Film "Kiss The Ground' New approaches to sustainable farming

7.30pm Bill Hugonin Auditorium
CONCERT FOR THE PLANET
Bradley Creswick, Leader Emeritus, Royal Northern Sinfonia with young musicians present The Lark Ascending

Nancy Kerr and James Fagan, finely-crafted and thought-provoking songs.

Degna Stone, poet, reflects on how she fell in love with Northumberland landscapes.

Paul Smith (vocals) and Duncan Lloyd (guitar) main songwriters for alternative rock band Maximo Park. Their album Nature Always Wins, was number 2 in the UK album charts last year, performing a rare stripped-down set especially for the Festival.
£18.00 / 18 and under. £12.00

SUNDAY 26 JUNE
10.30am-12noon Bill Hugonin Auditorium FILM 'Kiss The Ground' New approaches to sustainable farming
1pm-4.30pm Bill Hugonin Auditorium
FOOD AND FARMING - THE FUTURE
John Baker-Cresswell chairs a discussion on how changes in farming practice could help us move towards reduced carbon, clean water, healthy eating, biodiversity recovery and positive rural communities with Tom Burston, Food, Farming and Countryside Commission, farmers Simon Bainbridge, Edwin Taylor, Harry Sordy, Denise Walton, plus Professor Sally Shortall, Chloe Munro from the County Council Climate Change Team and author Peter Hetherington.

Interval Foyer and Bar
TASTE OF NORTHUMBERLAND
Sample delicious locally-produced food. Organised by Berwick Slow Food.

Alnwick Playhouse Community Choir and young singers will send us out with our theme song What a Wonderful World.

£2.00 booking fee then Pay What You Can.

THE ALNWICK GARDEN
Sat & Sun 1.00pm - 3.00pm
Arts & Crafts Yurt

GARDEN OF THE DEEP
Create art from beach plastic waste with Diane Watson.

Sunday 2.00pm - 4.30pm

LIVE MUSIC
Young performers from local schools joined by Nancy Kerr and James Fagan, Unit 8 Sam Carter and Alnwick Playhouse Community Choir plus pop-up theatre and music in delightful spaces all around the Garden.